Chapter 1 by Shannon Brady

"I am scared and you don't care!" Sahani whined and yelled at the same times. "I do care!" Sahani's mother yelled in a response to Sahani. Her mother's name was Priya. She was running chasing Sahani, who was trying to get away from Priya. "I don't want to go to school!" Sahani kept whining. Shaylla, who was enjoying herself, was getting ready for school. "Sahani, nothing is going to happen. Nothing," Shaylla laughed. Rohan was trying to act like his older sister, Shallya, as if he were mature. Sahani looked at her sister and just shook her head. "Mind your business!" Sahani yelled, "even Rohan is more mature! And he is 5!" Priya was shaking, she knew that this was her child and this is how she is. "Sahani, please. Oh, please don't yell. I was scared to go to school, too. But, when I went, I loved it." Priya told Sahani in a little whisper. Sahani had tears coming out of her eyes. "But, I don't want to go!" She yelled. Priya looked at her, mummered something, and looked at Shaylla. Shaylla nodded and walked towards Sahani. Sahani looked at Shallya and ran away, she knew what she was going to do.
